

SESLIP Regional Alliance Peer challenge 2019 - 2020

Triad 1

Date: 25 November 2019

Venue: LGA Offices, 18 Smith Square, London, SW1P 3HZ

Facilitator: Anna Wright

Participating authorities	Authority that DCS will read SA in depth
East Sussex	Surrey
Surrey	Wokingham
Wokingham	East Sussex

will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year. 12.20 Lunch 13.00 Second DCS presentation on their children's services self-assessment 13.15 Questions from the two other local authority teams, led by the Lead Review DCS 14.25 The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement 14.45 Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights 14.55 Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year.		Timetable
10.30 Questions from the two other local authority teams, led by the Lead Review DCS 11.40 The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard, affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement 12.00 Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights 12.10 Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year. 12.20 Lunch 13.00 Second DCS presentation on their children's services self-assessment 14.25 The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement 14.45 Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights 14.55 Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year.	10.00
 11.40 The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard, affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement 12.00 Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights 12.10 Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year. 12.20 Lunch 13.00 Second DCS presentation on their children's services self-assessment 13.15 Questions from the two other local authority teams, led by the Lead Review DCS 14.25 The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement 14.45 Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights 14.55 Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year. 	10.15	First DCS presentation on their children's services self-assessment
heard, affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement 12.00 Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights 12.10 Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year. 12.20 Lunch 13.00 Second DCS presentation on their children's services self-assessment 14.25 The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement 14.45 Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights 14.55 Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year.	10.30	Questions from the two other local authority teams, led by the Lead Review DCS
 insights 12.10 Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year. 12.20 Lunch 13.00 Second DCS presentation on their children's services self-assessment 13.15 Questions from the two other local authority teams, led by the Lead Review DCS 14.25 The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement 14.45 Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights 14.55 Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year. 	11.40	heard, affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts
will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year. 12.20 Lunch 13.00 Second DCS presentation on their children's services self-assessment 13.15 Questions from the two other local authority teams, led by the Lead Review DCS 14.25 The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement 14.45 Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights 14.55 Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year.	12.00
 13.00 Second DCS presentation on their children's services self-assessment 13.15 Questions from the two other local authority teams, led by the Lead Review DCS 14.25 The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement 14.45 Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights 14.55 Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year. 	12.10	have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities.
 13.15 Questions from the two other local authority teams, led by the Lead Review DCS 14.25 The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement 14.45 Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights 14.55 Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year.
 The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year. 	12.20	Lunch
heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement 14.45 Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights 14.55 Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year.
insights Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year.	13.00	Second DCS presentation on their children's services self-assessment
will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year.	13.00 13.15	Second DCS presentation on their children's services self-assessment Questions from the two other local authority teams, led by the Lead Review DCS The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts
	13.00 13.15 14.25	Second DCS presentation on their children's services self-assessment Questions from the two other local authority teams, led by the Lead Review DCS The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and
15.05 Tea/coffee	13.00 13.15 14.25 14.45	Questions from the two other local authority teams, led by the Lead Review DCS The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities.

15.15	Third DCS presentation on their children's services self-assessment
15.30	Questions from the two other local authority teams, led by the Lead Review DCS
16.40	The presenting team sit back and listen as the other two teams reflect on what they have heard affirming strengths and potential good practice offers first and then offering thoughts and insights into possible areas of risk and where to focus improvement
17.00	Reaction to reflection – presenting DCS and team react to the affirmation, thoughts and insights
17.10	Response from DCS and the team of how the questions have shaped their thinking, what they will be taking back to their own work plan and first thoughts on asks for support they may have from the region as a result. They will also confirm the offers they could make to other authorities. Invitations for a Topical Peer Challenge visit during the following year.
17.20	Prioritisation of suggestions for workstreams to be included in the SESLI Programme for the next year and taken to the annual summit in March; Suggestions for multi-lateral problem-solving groups/topics; Suggestions for new 19-a-side regional networking group
17.35	Finish

Facilitator: Anna Wright

Participating authorities	Authority that DCS will read SA in depth
East Sussex	Surrey
Surrey	Wokingham
Wokingham	East Sussex