

Dingley's Promise Training

Who are Dingley's Promise?

A charity delivering specialist nursery provision for children with SEND

- Ten Centres working with children, families and mainstream providers
- Thousands of children and families supported over 40+ years
- 35% to 70% transitions to the mainstream

A will to drive an inclusion movement

- Working across the UK with LAs, providers, partners & parents
- Training for mainstream providers
- Advice and support for the DfE
- Lobbying for change nationally representing their voices

Belonging

Representation

Equity

Respect

Celebration

What does inclusion mean to you?

Empowerment

Awareness

Accessibility

Collaboration

Safety

The four broad areas of need

Cognition and learning

Communication and interaction

Social, emotional and mental health

Sensory and/or physical

“The four broad areas of need give an overview of the range of needs that should be planned for”

– SEND Code of practice.

Implementing effective inclusion

- Creating a sense of belonging through all that you do
- Understanding the role of the environment
- Valuing the voice of the child and creating methods to support communication
- Early identification of needs
- Working collaboratively to implement effective support
- A flexible approach to transitions

Introduction to Early Years
Inclusive
Practice

Early Years
Transitions

Behaviours
that Challenge

Having Difficult Conversations with Families

The Voice of the Child

Intersections
of Early Years
SEND

Leadership
and Management
of Early Years
SEND

An Inclusive
Approach to Curriculum
and Assessment

Supporting Communication
Differences

Creating
Inclusive
Environments

Don't forget about the Mark of Achievement

When 75% of your team have completed 3 or more Dingley's Promise Training Courses, you are eligible to apply for our Mark of Achievement to showcase your commitment to inclusion!

Sign up now to get started on your available courses!

